Amazing Durian Fibers Products

Womenkraft Fair Trade
A Marketing Arm of KATAKUS, Inc

Product Description

The products are made of fibers from banana bracts, abaca waste and durian husks which are considered as agricultural waste. The fibers are molded with love and passion by the women members of Kababayen-an sa Katipunan Alang sa Kalamboan (KKK) in Katipunan, Panabo City, Davao del Norte. Mothers, out-of-school youths and working students from communities converts these into various novelty items. The natural color of the material is maintained to lessen the carbon footprint.

The enterprise adheres to Fair Trade standards. Buying these products helps the women and young people improve their lives.
